I dedicate this book to all the curious and imaginative children in the world. It celebrates their unique minds and spirits, inviting them to embark on Supernatural journeys and explore the power of their own imagination.

This book aims to ignite their limitless potential and inspire them to dream, explore and fulfill God's purpose for their lives.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to everyone who contributed to the creation and completion of this book, "Prophetic Kids - Ella, Elena, and the Angels." Your support and dedication have been invaluable, and I am incredibly grateful for each of you.

First and foremost, I want to thank God for his great grace and mercy concerning this project. Without his inspiration and resources, it would have been impossible to give life to the desires of my heart. I'm grateful and I want to say I will forever love and honour you, father of my Lord Jesus Christ.

I appreciate the Holy Spirit for his endless flow of ideas and visions for this work and other great ones. All praise and glory be unto God forever.

I want to acknowledge my parents, Mr. and Mrs. Omolade, for their unwavering support throughout this journey. Your love, encouragement, and belief in me have been my driving force, and I am eternally grateful.

I would also like to extend my appreciation to my siblings,

Oluwaseun, Ebunlomo, and Joshua Omolade, for their constant encouragement and understanding. Your presence in my life has brought immeasurable joy and inspiration.

A special acknowledgment goes to the Spirit Hub team and Spirit Hub Global family. Your collective efforts and collaboration have played a significant role in bringing this book to life. Thank you for your guidance, creativity, and the opportunities you have provided.

To Olasunkanmi Boluwatife, the designer of this book, I extend my deepest appreciation. Your artistic skills and attention to detail have transformed the words into a visually stunning masterpiece. The cover and interior design truly reflect the essence of the story.

I am grateful to Olugbode Anuoluwa, the editor, for your meticulousness and keen eye. Your dedication to refining the manuscript and ensuring its clarity and coherence have elevated the quality of this book.

Lastly, I want to acknowledge Ayodeji Akingbade, who aligned the entire book and played a crucial role in its development. Your guidance, expertise, and commitment to excellence have been invaluable. Thank you for your unwavering support and belief in this project.

To all those whose names might not appear on this list but have contributed their support, encouragement, and positive energy, I offer my heartfelt appreciation. Your belief in me and this book have meant the world to me.

Thank you all for being part of this incredible journey, and may this book touch the hearts and inspire the minds of its readers.

With deepest gratitude,

Omolade Richard.

INTRODUCTION

In a world filled with tales of witches, wizards, and dark enchantments, it is refreshing to discover a book that offers a different kind of supernatural adventure—one that illuminates the righteous path and leads young hearts into the embrace of God. "The Prophetic Kids: Ella, Elena and the Angels" is a remarkable story that sets out to stir the imaginations of children, introducing them to a world where divine encounters, purpose, and angelic assistance await.

In these pages, you will meet Ella, a spirited and inquisitive girl with a heart hungry for the extraordinary. It all begins one evening when her wise grandpa opens the pages of the Bible and reads to her stories of faith, hope, and miracles. Little does Ella know that this simple act of storytelling will ignite a chain of events that will forever change her life and that of her beloved sister, Elena.

As Ella and Elena journey together into the realm of visions and divine purpose, they find themselves accompanied by celestial beings - angels sent to guide and protect them. These young girls, with their hearts open to the supernatural, unlock their own unique gifts as prophetic children. They discover the incredible power of their words, the depths of their faith, and the importance of embracing their destiny.

The Prophetic Kids: Ella, Elena and the Angels" is not just a story. It is an invitation for young readers to explore the wonders of spirituality and the unseen forces that surround us. Through captivating adventures and heartwarming friendships, Ella and Elena navigate the challenges that come with their newfound abilities, teaching us profound lessons about courage, compassion, and the importance of staying true to our values.

In a world that often celebrates the twisted and the dark, this book offers a beacon of light and righteousness. It aims to inspire young hearts, reminding them of the beauty of innocence and the power of faith. Through its pages, children will discover that even the smallest among us can make a monumental impact, and that there is a divine plan for each and every one of them.

Join Ella, Elena, and the angels on this extraordinary journey. Unleash your own imagination, open your heart to the supernatural, and embrace the righteous journey. Unleash your own imagination, open your own imagination, open your heart to the supernatural, and embrace the righteous way into the things of God. Together, let us embark on a thrilling adventure that will leave an indelible mark on our souls—a journey that will stir the righteous path within us and illuminate the extraordinary possibilities that lie within.

Chapter 1

Ella, Elena and their Grandpa

Once upon a time, in a little cozy room filled with toys and bright colors, stood four-year-old Ella.

She gazed at the beautiful dolls and stuffed animals, waiting for someone special to come and play with her.

Just then, her sister Elena skipped into the room with a joyful smile on her face.

"Ella, let's go play!" Elena exclaimed, grabbing her sister's hand.

Together, they ventured out of their room into the warm embrace of their grandpa.

He welcomed them with open arms and invited them to share a delicious meal.

As Ella and Elena ate and played with their grandpa, they felt safe and loved.

Little did they know that this day was going to be the start of an extraordinary journey.

After their meal, grandpa led them to a quiet corner and opened a large, dusty book—the Bible.

He taught them about its stories and shared its wisdom. With gentle care, he turned to a verse in the book of Joel, chapter 2, verse 28.

Grandpa read; And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophecy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions.

Other kids came in to join them as Grandpa explained the bible.

"Listen, my dear Ella and Elena," grandpa began.

"This verse explains that you have divine power and you can hear from God.

You are special, and highly gifted, and you can do incredible things through the Spirit of God inside of you."

Ella and Elena paid rapt attention, wide eyed, they marvelled at what they just heard. They prayed together and they kissed their Grandpa before they went to sleep.

That night, as Ella laid on the bed, strange dreams began to fill her mind.

Chapter 2

Ella Had a Strange Dream

Ella saw eerie demons trying to hug her and whisk her away. Fear gripped her little heart, and she had little strength to fight.

She tried to call for help but no one answered. She tried to run away, but the demons were too big for her to handle.

The demons grabbed her closer, she couldn't fight it even though she was frightened. The huge foul spirit enchanted her and her eye lids began to dilate.

Ella began to faint as she came to end of herself. While the demons were about to carry her away, something strange happened.

A beautiful female creature appeared, she was tiny but she had tremendous power which enabled her to grab Ella from the huge demon and the demon couldn't help it.

The white lady touched Ella gently. She said to her, "Ella wake up, I'm Meniel, God sent me to rescue you".

She carried Ella and she looked at her face. Ella said faintly, you look beautiful, you're just like an angel.

Meniel smiled as Ella commented, meanwhile, the demon standing behind became frustrated and the presence of Meniel rendered him useless and powerless.

Without a fight, Meniel overpowered the huge demon.

In a twinkle of an eye, Meniel transformed from a white little girl into a very muscular male looking angel.

She embraced Ella as the demon vanished. Meniel comforted Ella and told her that she heard her when she was praying with her grandpa. Meniel said; "the voice of your prayers summoned me and Jesus sent her regards, dearly beloved Ella".

Once again, Meniel transformed into a beautiful girl and hugged Ella. Ella said to Meniel, "It was nice meeting you. Thanks for coming to help me."

Meniel replied, "I've always been around, but you didn't know. I became real to you because of the knowledge Grandpa exposed you to, and because you prayed. I will be with you always, beloved Ella."

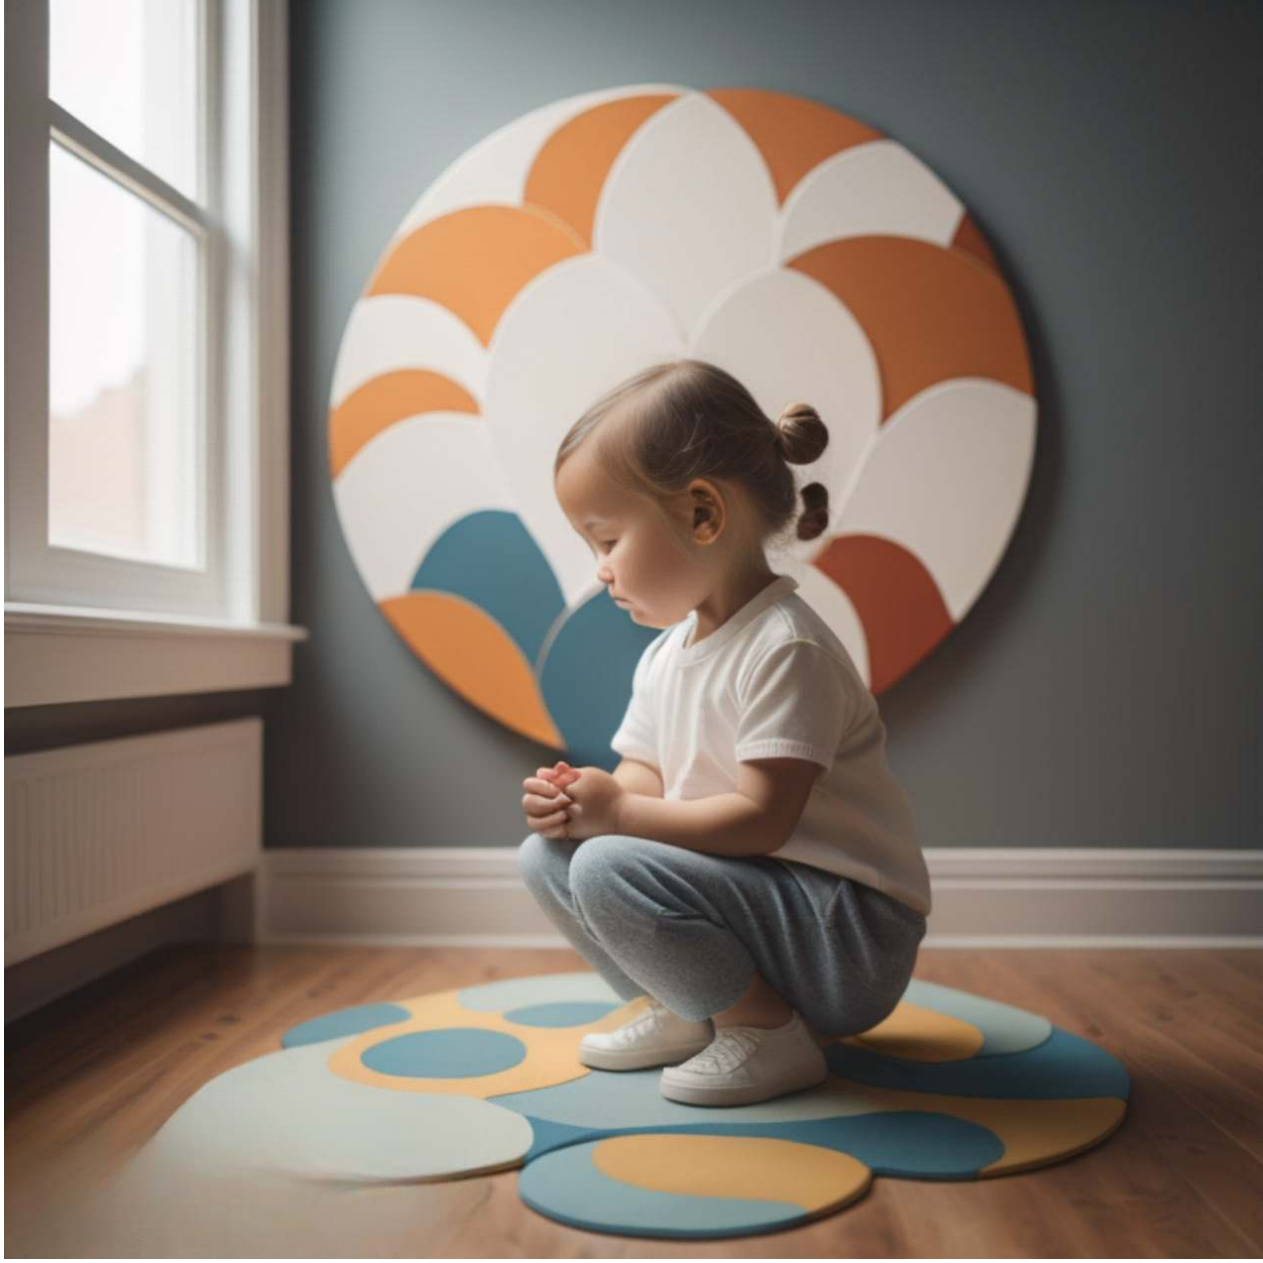

Chapter 3

Angels in Ella's world

Ella woke up from the dream and vividly remembered everything that happened. She was fascinated and knelt down to pray on her own for the first time. She gave thanks to God for caring so much about her and for protecting her from the demons.

Ella gave thanks and she heard her Grandmother's voice telling her to come. She got up and left for the sitting room.

"Good morning, my baby. I hope you had a sound sleep," her grandmother said. "I'm alive and well, Granny," Ella replied.

The grandmother continued, "I've prepared a great meal for Elena and my little princess." They ate together and prepared for school.

Elena and Ella alighted from a train in Maxwell's Train station. Just as the little girls stepped down, Ella saw an angel of light standing before her.

She thought it was a dream and pointed her fingers to the angel for Elena to confirm but it appeared that she was the only one seeing the angel. The Angel said "Hi, I'm here to help you. Ella, stunned and shocked, she said "okay".

Ella got to her class thinking she must have had a vision, whilst she was still meditating on the subway experience, the same angel appeared before Ella in her classroom. None of the other kids could see but she could see the angel visibly.

Ella was puzzled and she was sure it wasn't a dream. The angel smiled at her and she waved in return.

Ella continued her class exercises, and the angel was with her all day long. The angel stood as her guide and protector while Ella was writing and drawing.

Ella whispered to her friend Joy, "Can you see the angel standing behind me?" Joy replied, "What angel?" Ella added, "The one shining so bright right here." Joy said, "I can't see anything. Are you sure you are fine, Elly?" Ella reassured her friend and told her not to worry.

During the class exercise, Ella got stuck and didn't know what to do. Just before she turned, an elderly-looking being sat beside her and asked her what the problem was.

She said, "I can't figure out this math problem." The angel replied, "Oh, that's simple, Ella." The angel told her what to do and how to do it, and Ella ended up with a perfect score.

Elena and Ella arrived home and received a warm embrace from their grandpa. The grandpa asked them about their time at school. Elena said it was boring, but Ella said she had been seeing angels.

Grandpa jokingly remarked that it must have been because of watching too much of the Bible Super Stories, an animated series. They had a meal with grandpa, and he shared amazing stories with them.

Chapter 4

Elena and her Pastor

Ella's dad came on a Sunday morning and drove the entire family to church. When they arrived at the church, their dad was about to take Ella and Elena to the children's class when they pulled him back. "Daddy, an angel is standing before you," they exclaimed.

It seemed that both Ella and Elena could see the angel this time, but their dad was confused about what was going on.

Ella's dad didn't know what to do, but he handed them over to his pastor. Elena explained what they had seen to their pastor, and he taught them from the Bible about the ministry of angels and what to do.

He asked them to pray to God so that He could give them a message through the angels. Elena nodded her head in approval after the discussion with her pastor.

Elena and Ella arrived home and went to Ella's room. Elena asked her sister, "What are you playing with?" Ella replied, "Nothing, just eating this donut." Elena then explained what their pastor had said to her and what they needed to do. Ella responded, "Do you really think the angel has a message for us? Aren't we too small for that? Maybe we should tell Dad or Grandpa."

Elena told her sister that God can speak to both the young and the old. "Okay, sissy," Ella replied. Elena suggested that they should pray, and Ella agreed. They both got on their knees. Elena began to pray,

"Heavenly Father, we thank you for your love and protection, and for your kindness. We pray that you grant us understanding of your will and deliver your message concerning our purposes in Jesus' name."

Help us to know the hope of Your calling, that we might walk in Your ways and fulfill Your assignment for us. Thank you, Lord, for answering our prayers through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen," they both replied. Elena left for her room, and Ella went to bed. She fell into a deep sleep, and something strange happened.

Chapter 5

Ella and Elena on a Journey

Ella and Elena found themselves before a being of light. The being said to them, "Welcome, ladies. I'm here for you, and I'm going to take you on a journey. You might be wondering how the two of you got here, but you will find out later.

Your voices reached God, and He asked me to show you your purpose." "Purpose?" Ella replied in surprise. "Yes, dear. We are going to travel across nations. Please hold my hand."

The angel took them and carried them to a region in Asia. Ella and Elena were shown a group of little children surrounding a terrifying being that looked like a demon. This particular demon appeared to be giving them guns and training them to become violent.

Elena was shocked and exclaimed, "What is this?" The angel explained to her, "This is the spirit of violence. He teaches young boys to be dangerous and disobedient."

"This spirit inspires their hearts to be wicked and stirs societal vices among them. As long as they are in this environment, the demon will control their behaviors, and they will influence one another," the angel explained.

"This is so sad," Ella expressed in dissatisfaction. "Come, let me take you somewhere else and show you more."

The angel took them to another place in a local neighborhood. The children had Asian features and appeared malnourished. Their environment looked devastating, and it was evident that they were living in abject poverty.

The angel informed Ella and Elena, "These kids need help, and without a Savior, they might die." Ella pleaded with the angel, "Please, let's take them away from this place. They don't have to suffer like this."

"Come with me, please," the angel said, and they suddenly disappeared from that place to another location. A dark-skinned boy, looking unkempt, appeared before them. He had no shoes, and his clothes were untidy. The angel informed the two sisters, "This boy is an orphan.

His parents died due to social violence, and he has no one to look after him." Tears rolled down Elena's face as she felt profound sympathy for the child.

The angel took Ella and Elena to another street in the same neighborhood. They saw two boys being led by a peculiar creature. "Who is this demon?" Elena asked. "Oh, that's the spirit of poverty. He is responsible for keeping people in destitution," the angel replied.

"Why is he doing that?" Ella inquired. The angel explained, "He ensures that people don't live up to God's purposes for their lives."

The angel took them to several places and he eventually brought them to a place where some little boys were plotting evil schemes.

These boys have been possessed by the spirit of wickedness the angel said. God is going to use you ladies to stop what the enemy is doing to these kids. Let me show you what you will do.

"I'm going to use Ella to build an organization to take care of little children. It won't be an orphanage, but rather a family where the young ones will be trained, shown love, and taught the ways of God. You will take kids away from frustration and bring them into a safe haven," the angel proclaimed.

"Ella, you will be a mother to many nations." Ella was greatly shocked and thought to herself, "I'm just a little girl after all."

"Do not say you are a child, for God has ordained you for this cause," the angel reassured Ella. Then, turning to Elena, the angel continued, "You will be an advocate for the young ones. You will save many from child abuse, molestation, ill treatment, bullying, violence, and corrupt practices. You will be a deliverer, Elena."

The little girls felt a mix of strangeness and excitement. They couldn't fully comprehend their emotions and were in awe of the angel's words.

Chapter 6

The Adventure begins

A muscular male figure, transforming from a being of light, drew close to Ella and told her to prepare for what God was going to use her for. "Ella, you are precious to God, and He will use you for great and mighty things. Stay in your purpose and stay connected with God's Spirit within you.

Remember, I will be with you forever and ever," the angel said. The angel then embraced the sisters before disappearing.

Ella and Elena developed a great passion for the Word of God, and their grandpa was always ready to explain things to them.

The sisters grew stronger in age and in knowledge, and a new phase opened up for the Santos family. Ella, who is three years older, became wiser than ever, and Elena, 10 years old.

A new journey began for both sisters as they moved to a new school called Palmers Academy. Ella embarked on a new adventure in this fresh environment and she exuded confidence in what awaited her.

She was determined to give her best to God and to become a better person. She knew that God loved her, and she believed that angels were protecting her wherever she went.

Ella and Elena arrived at Palmers Academy on the school bus. There was a handsome young man serving as their protector and guide.

They all laughed as Ella and Elena stepped off the school bus.
